

JAL and Qatar Airways to Further Expand Codeshare Cooperation

TOKYO June 09, 2014: Japan Airlines (JAL) and Qatar Airways (QR), both members of the oneworld® alliance, have entered a codeshare agreement with each other for further cooperation and will commence codeshare flights from June 18, 2014 on QR-operated flights between Tokyo(Haneda) and Doha.

In addition to JAL’s existing codeshare service on QR-operated flights between Tokyo (Narita) and Doha, as well as between Osaka (Kansai) and Doha from December 3, 2013, the new codeshare flight between Tokyo (Haneda) and Doha will deliver more convenience to passengers connecting from domestic flights arriving at Haneda, and offer more options to passengers traveling to areas such as the Middle East, South Europe and Africa.

JAL will strengthen its partnership with QR to bring more convenience and enhance services to customers. The airline continues such challenges to deliver more enjoyable experience, and looks forward to serving our customers, whether they are business or leisure travelers.

New codeshare flights:

1. Reservation and sales of new codeshare flights will begin from 15:00 (JST) June 11, 2014.
2. The new codeshare flights will be operated from June 18. (Flight departing from Haneda will start from June 19)
