

JAL NEWS

August 19, 2014

Handling of Infants Traveling with Expectant Mothers within 4 weeks (28 days) of the Due Date

Dear JAL Valued Travel Partners:

Thank you for your continued support of Japan Airlines.

This is to inform you regarding changes in the acceptance of infants traveling with expectant mothers within 4 weeks (28 days) of the delivery date.

Effective date: Bookings on and after August 18, 2014

Changes: The condition to accept infants traveling with expectant mothers within 4 weeks (28 days) of the delivery date will be unified for both international and domestic sectors.

- Previous:
International Sectors = No limitations
Domestic Sectors = Only 1 infant over 2 years old with his or her own confirmed seat
- Revised:
International and Domestic Sectors = Only 1 infant with his or her own confirmed seat

Considering the safety of expectant mothers, accompanying infants must travel in a purchased seat. In addition, a child seat (car seat) must be used for infants under 2 years of age.

For more information, please contact JAL Agency Desk or JAL Reservations at 800-525-3663.

Japan Airlines Co., Ltd.
The Americas