Update

Termination of Prepaid Ticket Advice (PTA)

This is to inform you that Japan Airlines has discontinued the acceptance of all Prepaid Ticket Advice (PTA) as the result of extensive use of electronic tickets and abolishment of Sales Indicators.

This termination now includes Philippine passport holders originating their travel in the Philippines due to the lifting of Philippine sales restrictions.

Effective Date

June 17, 2014 For PTAs, except passengers with Philippine passports

February 16, 2015 For all PTAs, including passengers with Philippine passports

In case of issuing tickets for Philippine passport holders originating their travel in the Philippines, please advise passengers to pay the Philippine Travel Tax (PH) directly to the Tourism Infrastructure Economic Zone Authority (TIEZA) before check-in. The receipt of PH tax payment or a certificate of exemption will be required at check-in. PH tax should not be collected at the time of ticketing outside of the Philippines.

For more information about Philippine Travel TAX (PH) please visit TIEZA web: <http://www.tieza.gov.ph/index.php/travel-tax>
