

JAL and Finnair Expand Codeshare Cooperation

TOKYO April 19 2016: Japan Airlines (JAL) and Finnair (AY), both members of oneworld® alliance and joint business partners, have agreed to expand codeshare cooperation on AY-operated flights between Fukuoka and Helsinki starting May 7, 2016. With this new expansion of two airlines' partnership, customers will have more choices to fly from Western Japan to Europe for business or pleasure.

Fukuoka will become the fourth gateway from Japan to Europe to be included in JAL's joint business partnership with Finnair and British Airways, in addition to Osaka, Nagoya and Tokyo.

Through our partnerships and ceaseless drive to embrace challenges, JAL with its partners will continue to strive for even greater heights in order to bring you the most convenient and enjoyable flight experience.

【New codeshare flights with AY】
